Best Food

Yikes; where do we start with this one? As anybody what they like about Queens, and when you get past the answers of diversity, the Mets or their parents, they rave about the food. Where else can you get samosas, sushi, sangria, sauerbraten and a slice of pizza all on the same block?

The diversity of this borough is shown not only through its varied cuisine, but also through those who experiment, learning about foods they consider foreign, and opening up doors to whole new gastronomic wonders.

"Marabella is a must for relatives who visit from out of town. Best pizza sauce & all their food is fresh & delicious! And it is very clean."
